FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What is the "Best Available Rate"?

The HSBC Entertainer Travel hotel rates and offers are based on a discount off the Best Available Rate.

The Best Available Rate is the fully flexible "non restricted" room only rate of the day quoted directly by the hotel reservations to the general public and is generally published on the hotel website. It may also be referred to as Best Flexible Rate. The Best Available Rate varies from the hotels' other promotional rates including Weekend Package rates, Advance Purchase rates and Summer/Ramadan rates.

The HSBC Entertainer Travel offers are not valid in conjunction with any other hotel promotional rates and do not apply to corporate, group or convention rates or travel agency bookings. These offers may not be combined with other discount offers or programmes including rates on third party travel or daily deal websites.

What is "Subject to Availability"?

The HSBC Entertainer Travel offers are "Subject to Availability" of rooms at the discounted rate allocated to this promotion at the time of booking at each hotel. When this allocation of rooms is filled, the offer may then no longer be available to Members, even if the hotel still has rooms available to be sold at full rate. Please check availability of this offer with hotel reservations at the time of booking.

Public Holidays / Seasonal Restrictions

HSBC Entertainer Travel hotel rates and offers may not be available during public holiday periods including EID holidays in GCC destinations. Some hotels may also have a "minimum night stay" requirement for all bookings, or specific block-out dates during special event or peak seasonal periods. This requirement may also apply to HSBC Entertainer Members. Please check with the hotel prior to making a booking.

Are both offers valid at the same time?

You may use the Complimentary Night Voucher offer for the first two nights of your booking. The 20% discount offer may apply to additional nights of your stay.
